Last night a coyote howled in the meadow
 C D Em
And a train whistle echoed down the hill
 C D G G/f# Em
There was a rustling in the leaves that stirred up my memories
 C D Bm Em
They played me that old traveling song
 C D G
And I wished that I was already gone

2. This morning geese flew low past my window
 The were winging their way to the south
 They did not have much to say but they pointed out the way
 They showed me that deep snow won't be long
 And I wished that I was already gone

3. There's a tear in your eye as you watch me
 Stuff my clothes in a dirty duffle bag
 There's a fire in your kiss that I know I'm gonna miss
 But this rambler's got to keep moving on
 And I wish that I was already gone

coda Yeah, this old boy's got to keep moving on
 And I wish that I was already gone
