Intro Bb Gm Dm C

1. C G Am7
Six miles high, speed was steady
C Am Em F
Wind from the north, weather fair
C Dm7+c G
Cabin door screamed and blew open
Dm7+c G
She was pulled into the air

2. Wind tore her clothes like a lover
Anxious to get her into bed
Shoes, stockings, jacket and white blouse
Her skirt pulled off over her head

Chorus F C G Am Bb Dm C G
Facing the stars. Facing the ground Feeling the wind spin her around
Bb Dm Am Bb C Dm C
Swan dive in space, graceful and small Making love with the wind in free fall

3. He twisted and turned her with whimsy
Taught her to dive and to pray
Learned every inch of her body
Dm C
Then wantonly blew her away

Break Bb Gm Dm Gm Bb Dm C

4. Now the earth is a jealous mother
Who wants the wind for her own
She pulled the girl down to her bosom
Dm7+c G
With gravity, welcomed her home

5. Their brief affair ended abruptly
In a field on a cold and starlit night
But she rode the wind with a passion
Dm7+c C
That lasted the rest of her life

Chorus Facing the stars. Facing the ground Feeling the wind spin her around
Bb D Am Bb C Dm
Swan dive in space, graceful and small Making love with the wind in free fall
