Key D / G 4/4

Intro: D G D A G Bm Cmaj7 Asus4 A7

Chorus
I wanted to fly. I wanted to soar
I needed to find out what was outside that locked door
I wanted to run. I had to be free
Love was the lock, the leash, the load that weighed heavy on me

1. Daddy and I never saw eye to eye
He said "Black." I said "Why?"
He said "Low." I said "High."
He said "Stay" and I said "Good bye." 'Cause

Chorus
I wanted to fly. I wanted to soar
I needed to find out what was outside that locked door
I wanted to run. I had to be free. His
Love was the lock, the leash, the load that weighed heavy on me

2. Sometimes we get old and never get wise
I saw anger in Daddy's eyes
I never saw love. I never saw pride
And it stayed that way till the day that he died

Instrumental D G D A D Bb

Bridge (spoken) Then one night, in a dream, Daddy said to me

Chorus
I knew you could fly. I knew you could soar
You already had the key to unlock that door
I knew you could run. You were already free
Love was your heart, your soul, your wings. You didn't need me

Coda
Love was your heart, your soul, your wings
You never needed me
