Intro: G G

1. G
She watches his truck roll in
Am
Counts the days till it rolls back out
C D
They can go for a week maybe if they don't speak
C G
Of those things they fight about

2. Maybe this time he'll help with the babies
Maybe this time he'll paint their room
Maybe he will recall that the light in the hall
Has been broken since early last June

3. He knows it isn't a motel
It isn't a roadside cafe
He just can't get up, leave a buck by the cup
Turn his back and drive away

Bridge C G
She got caught between starlight and sunshine
C G
Woke up in the cold light of day
C Am
She dreamed of the life she'd have as his wife
A7 D D/c# D/b D/a
She can't make it turn out that way

4. Maybe this time he'll help with the children
Maybe this time he'll fix the fence
Maybe he will recall he broke the light in the hall
It's been hanging like that ever since

5. She watches his truck roll in
Counts the days till it rolls back out
They can go for a week maybe if they don't speak
Of those things they fight about

coda C G
All those things they fight about
C D G
All those things they fight about
