Intro: Am D Am D G

1. I filled up outside of Flagstaff Waved good bye to old Winslow
Hit my stride ahead of Holbrook Million miles more to go
I can hear that boy complaining, "Tell me what did I do wrong?"
I can hear his momma answer, "Better off now that she's gone"

Chorus I'm the flicker of the white line in the corner of your eye
I'm a coyote from Kayenta laughing loudly in your mind
I'm a hawk up on a thermal, crisp against the clear blue sky
I'm a sandstorm from Sedona I'm gonna blow on by

2. Left that inbred town behind me Never stopped to say goodbye
Pawned my ring when I reached Prescott. Need the money down the line
There's a cowboy up in Gallup God that man looks good in jeans
Think I'll make it there by dinner See if he remembers me

Chorus

Coda I'm an April desert morning. I'm a flower fresh with dew
I'm a sandstorm from Sedona and I just blew by you yeah
I'm a sandstorm from Sedona and I just blew by you
