

State Line Café

©1996 by Sandra L. Reay, 2006 by Sandra L. Reay & B. J. Suter
Colorado Sandstorm Music Publishing, BMI
PO Box 2261, Monument CO 80132

Key F 4/4

Intro F

Chorus F Bb F
Just an ... old truck-stop in the middle of nowhere
Dm Bb F
That gray weathered place called the State Line Cafe
C F C F
Stop in for some coffee, a burger, or French fries
Bb C F
The next place to stop is an hour away

1. Bb F C Dm
Built in the twenties, survived the depression
Bb F Dm Bb
Pouring coffee for truckers on that lonesome blacktop
C F
Dave bought the place to be out of the city
Bb C
Cooking hash browns and chicken for the people who stop
2. Then crews widened the highway. They took out the curve
Engineers said it was safer that way
Now the trucks don't have access so they keep on rolling
On up to Wyoming past the State Line Cafe

Chorus Past that ...

Break Bb F C Dm Bb F C Dm Bb F C

3. Jackie served the last breakfast three eggs over easy
One piece of bacon, three slices of toast
Then they threw out their dreams with the leftover coffee
Where they're headed, nobody knows

Chorus Left that ... old truck-stop in the middle of nowhere
That gray weathered place called the State Line Cafe
You can't stop for coffee, no burger, no French fries
Bb F C Dm F
Jackie and Dave closed the State Line today

Coda Bb F C F
Yeah, Jackie and Dave closed the State Line today